JULIE HENSLEY lost her sight in 1981. Her first transplant was in 1993 (kidney pancreas) and her second kidney transplant in 2007. Julie was the 1974 WA State H.S. Rodeo Queen and she was born into a rodeo family. Her mom, Jan Smith times for pro rodeos in the Northwest. Julie's passion for horses is shared by her husband, Kurt, of 24 years. They reside in Brewster, WA. They start & break colts and Julie still rides. She has a seeing eye dog, Lora; her fourth. Julie snowmobiles and cross-country skies during the winter months. She has a Mac with voice that enables her to e-mail. Julie's speech is "The Lucky One" and she believes in organ donations and delivers a message of hope for those in need of an organ and a message of security for those who need to make a plan that will be embraced by family members.

THE BUZZ GANG will entertain us with the "Grand Finale Shoot Out" at Trinity Farms! Bring your cameras and enjoy the western hospitality.

Listen to the soothing sounds of Dave McClure from Nespelem, WA on Saturday evening while enjoying a ranch cooked steak and the fixings at Trinity Farms. Dave is ranch raised and may have an occasional story to tell.....oh boy!!!
